

WASHINGTON - Congressman John W. Olver (1st District) delivered the following remarks on the

"Mr. Chairman I rise in support of the Transportation Equity Act and I thank Chairman Young

"Mr. Chairman, this legislation is critical to meeting our country's transportation needs, but I

"The Rural Interstate Corridor Communications study included in this legislation will examine

"This important feasibility study is a first step towards increasing the

"The availability of high speed Internet access would assist rural communities

# #